MATA and Shelby County Election Commission Partner Again to Invite Citizens to Roll to the Polls

Memphis, Tenn. – Free bus rides are being offered to voters on Friday, September 29.

The Memphis Area Transit Authority (MATA) is teaming up with the Shelby County Election Commission again to boost voter awareness and ensure accessibility by eliminating transportation barriers.

“Every election cycle is critical and gives everyone the opportunity for their voice to be heard, that's why we are proud to continue the partnership with the Shelby County Election Commission,” Gary Rosenfeld, MATA CEO. “We believe that transportation should never be a barrier to voting and our Roll to the Polls partnership is designed to empower individuals to exercise their fundamental right to vote.”

MATA will provide rides to the polls all day on fixed route buses as early voting winds down.
